MUST HANG FOR TRIPLE MURDER

Only Respite From Governor or Can Save Georgia Prisoner Today

Special to Daily News.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 21.—Only a respite from Governor Slaton can save from the gallows J. C. Hunter, the triple murderer whose life has been the most remarkable in the criminal annals of Chatham county. For nearly two years Hunter has been confined in the Savannah jail while eminent legal talent has worked to have the verdict of death set aside. Three times he has been granted a respite when almost ready to mount the gallows. Meanwhile the case was carried to the supreme court of Georgia, which body by a unanimous vote refused to interfere with the verdict of the trial court. Hope that Governor Slaton might grant a respite is now practically abandoned and it is generally believed that the condemned man will be executed tomorrow.

Hunter's crime was the murder of three women in a house on Perry street in this city on December 19, 1909. One of the victims was his wife, from whom he was separated. The other victims of the man's jealous fury were Mrs. Eliza Gribble, 70 years old, and her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Chlander. The three women were literally hacked to pieces with an axe.

A peculiar feature of the case was the general assumption that the crime was that of a negro assassin. Following the statement of neighbors that a negro was seen to leave the house occupied by Mrs. Gribble and her daughter, where Mrs. Hunter was living temporarily, the police began a round-up of negro suspects. Within twenty-four hours 150 negroes were taken into custody.

Hunter, the husband of one of the victims, was arrested a few days after the crime. At midnight he was taken to the morgue to look upon the dead face of his wife. He was asked if he desired to kiss her and did so. Throughout the terrible ordeal he showed no signs of fear or emotion other than sobbing.

Hunter's trial resulted in a verdict of guilty and a sentence of death. Then began the long legal battle to save the life of the condemned man. In February, 1910, Bingham Bryan, a negro, made his entry into the famous case, with the result that public opinion as to Hunter's guilt was considerably divided for a time. Bryan had been arrested in the general raid made on the negro quarter following the Perry street murders. Investigation of his movements brought to light nothing to connect him with the triple tragedy, but he was held in jail on a minor charge. Several months later he "confessed" to having murdered Mrs. Gribble, Mrs. Chlander and Mrs. Hunter. According to his statement he entered the house bent on robbery and carrying a hammer as a weapon. Mrs. Gribble caught him in the kitchen. He said he struck her several times with the hammer before she died. Then, he declared, the daughter ran in, and after striking her down with his fist, he beat her with the hammer. As he was trying to leave the house the third woman came in and grabbed him. He said he caught her by the throat and choked her and struck her with the hammer.

Bryan's confession was made in detail and at the time was generally accepted as clearing up the mystery of the murders. For more than a year the negro was kept in jail while a legal controversy waxed over the question whether he or the convicted husband of Mrs. Hunter was guilty of the three murders. The battle ended finally in the release of the negro and confirmation of the verdict of guilty found against Hunter.

President Murphy, of the Cubs, says he is going to engage a corps of "virile" scouts next season. We don't know what he means; but the minor leagues have enough trouble without having this "virile" thing tossed at them.

As Orvie Overall is in bad with the Cubs, the National Commission will perhaps slap a fine on "Ping" Bodie, "Miner" Brown, Oscar Stanate and Hooper, Walters and Lewis, of the Boston Red Sox, for playing ball with Overall in California.

INSTITUTE CLOSSES SUCCESSFUL SESSION

The Potter County Teachers' Institute completed the five days' session yesterday afternoon. Throughout the meeting the professional spirit was intense. All who participated in the program contributed greatly to the pedagogical betterment of those in attendance. The subjects discussed upon this year and the various problems and questions considered were entirely different from the old-time stereotyped topics usually assigned for the average county and city institutes. Modern methods in all branches of the public school curriculum occupied the attention of the institute, while those who had been assigned places on the program were among the leaders in educational work in the Panhandle courtesy.

In his talk on "Educational Impressions from World Travels," C. L. Syron gave his observations of the merits and demerits of educational systems of Europe and Asia, detailing the remarkable growth of the public schools in the Philippine Islands. Mr. Syron, during his talk, touched upon the "Passion Play" at Oberammergau.

Judge R. W. Hall addressed the institute on the subject, "The High School Student After Graduation." This eminent lawyer kept his hearers interested from the beginning to the end of his talk, injecting at times in his remarks the very keenest of wit and humor.

"The Philosophy of, and the Aim in, the Teaching of History," by Miss Margaret Cefer, of the department of history of the West Texas State Normal school, was one of the most scholarly talks heard during the institute. Miss Cefer is a recognized specialist in her department of study, and gave the teachers the very best of her researches as a student of history.

Before the conclusion of the program, Judge W. M. Jeter, ex-officio county superintendent of the public schools of Potter county, talked to the teachers on "Five Years Growth of Potter County's School System." Judge Jeter has very faithfully served as chairman during the institute.

The vocal duet by Misses Lilla Bell Pitts and Willie Kimbrough was a much enjoyed feature of the closing day's program.

The discussion of practical educational problems and professional work occupied a considerable part of yesterday's institute.

The Kimball piano, used throughout the institute week, was very generously loaned by the Levee Piano Co.

"You must sing, I'll do the begging," from a scene in the story that never grows old, The Two Orphans, at the Grand Saturday and Christmas Day, Dec. 23 and 25, matinee and night.
